

Caltech Archives Oral History Project
Interviewee Release Form

I, _____, am a participant in the Caltech Archives Oral History Project. I understand that the purpose of the Project is to collect audio recordings and transcripts of interviews of Caltech community members for inclusion in the permanent collections of the Caltech Archives and Special Collections. These oral histories serve as scholarly and educational resources for the Caltech community and the general public.

The Caltech Archives Oral History Project recorded interviews with me in _____. I have read the transcript supplied by the Project.

I transfer my copyright to this recording and transcript to the California Institute of Technology. In return, Caltech grants me a nonexclusive license to use and publish them during my lifetime.

I hereby release and discharge Caltech from any and all claims that may arise regarding the use of the audio recordings and transcripts of my interview, including without limitation, any claims based on the right of privacy, the right of publicity, copyright, and defamation, or any other right.

I understand that Caltech may provide access to the recording and transcript; may publish them in print, on the web, or using other media; may incorporate them into exhibitions, publications, documentary films, or other media productions; and may license others to do so as well. All of these uses shall be subject to the restrictions listed below.

Optional: I have prepared an edited transcript which may be published or provided subject to the other restrictions listed here.

- The original verbatim transcript may not be published or provided to anyone during my lifetime.
- Portions of the interview regarding [topics or people] may not be published during my lifetime, but access may be provided to those who request it.
- Portions of the interview regarding [topics or people] may not be published or provided to anyone during my lifetime.
- The audio recordings from the original interview discussion may not be published during my lifetime.
- Other restrictions arranged with Caltech Archives and Special Collections or Caltech Heritage Project staff:
